TSAR WITHIN, MIDWAY RETURN: IMMEDIATELY JUMPED BY TERRORISTS

Unified States — The Tsar of the Unified States has returned to the USSR after nearly a month abroad. The Serenely Serene WithinTheVortex I left Larisa Novus on the eve of the Anniversary of Napoleon’s death (which is a solemn day in the Republic of Ora) in the midst of boiling fears of dangerous red hot leeks. A newspaper report from the day read: “The pair made a dramatic flight from the Seat of the Imperial Diet in Larisa Novus as protestors swarmed at the doors following the publication of certain compromising documents relating to the food chains in Ithaca Novus. A document, among others released... following an unauthorised breach at Ora’s National Archives... casts doubt on the sanitation of leeks being supplied to some of the major settlements in the Unified States.” Read more page 2...

7 yo apparently under impression everybody knows who “aunt Clara” is Melbadorra — An Oralian MD treating a Russian girl currently in ICU has spoken to media outside the hospital in Melbadorra, confirming fears that his patient is suffering from what doctors are calling “Acute Toddler Presumption Type 2.” Sasha, 7, was admitted to hospital two days ago after her family noticed signs of “systematic patterns of deviation from norm or rationality in judgment.” Doctors in Melbadorra’s newly opened general hospital say they were shocked to find a second case of “Acute Toddler Presumption Type 2,” just days after a 4 year old local was hospitalised following a comment during a family gathering in which she said “And den, and den, I arksed mom if I could—I could go to Hannah’s houuse.” This case was particularly disturbing as the witness (2nd cousin twice removed; only there for the food) has no idea who “Hannah” or “mom” is. Doctor Ver Ri Rrich, who heads up the Gene Therapy unit at the hospital treating the two children, says it is a difficult case for healthcare professionals to face: “I have 3 kids and this is just unfathomable,” Mr Rrich said, “It can happen to anyone; your toddler could be a risk, whether from Acute Toddler Presumption Type 2, or from Type 1—which is most prevalent around 4 to 782 weeks and takes the form of the belief that the social upheavals of the early 20th century were not the direct result of the events of 13 May 1453. "WE FINNA LIGHT THE HOOD UP BOIS" - MID MIDWAY2CONQUEST RETURNS after "a long and trying time politicking in Europe," which mainly consisted of "rum, one of the five fundamental pillars - the others being peace, freedom, justice, and security - to any new empire." When questioned on what else he did while overseas, completely natural bodybuilder Midway2Conquest stated: "Ey? What more do I need to do -" he then proceeded to salsa dance away with a broom. Authorities intercepted Midway "on his way to his seventh pub -" the other six having "run dry due to some strange, unnatural phenomenon" - "and brought him in for interrogation on account of his escaping court custody prior to his European journey. Midway2Conquest defended himself by saying "My bad bois," and subsequently vanished in a poof of air, leaving the three guards with a genie that granted them three wishes - not each, but collectively. When made aware of a loophole allowing them to wish each other away, the three guards - being perfect logicians - wished each other away, attempting to horde all the wishes for themselves. Unfortunately this back-fired and the three guards vanished, only seen again in Bathtub Living, working as employees and all suffering an unexplainable amnesia. So the interrogation room was left empty, and only the genie's ship-in-a-bottle remained. When questioned later on, Midway2Conquest admitted that "he had no idea what had happened" - several eye-witnesses, including Mr. Truth Serum, verified that he was in fact telling the truth. Midway2Conquest continued: "I just decided to roll with the punches and head back to the pubs, yknow." Anywho. Midway2Conquest was invited to a tour of the new Unified States after he was found slightly more sober, when he was viciously ambushed by a group of terrorists outside a train station. The completely shredded bodybuilder allegedly escaped their clutches by screaming "Choo Choo!" at which point a flying train descended from the Heavens and whisked him away. At least, that's the word on the street dude. Describing the incident to reporters, Midway2Conquest said: "My brutha from anotha motha, when I was in Europe I was straight chilling dawg, yknow? Cruisin' along, hanging with the homies, dissing turtles, yknow what I mean. Now, when I get back home, what do I find? Terrorists bro, straight up terries in my motherland. Like, I ain't letting that slide habibi. Up in Rome I was cracking open a few cold ones with the boys - down in Ora I gotta crack a few boys with my cold ones." Midway2Conquest's spokesman, NotConquest4Fun, elaborated, stating that: "The Unified States, on advise of the M2C Consultancy Firm, has now ordered the complete dissolution of police forces in the Far Oralian Area, replacing them with the Marine Corps, and has also established the Institute For Friendly Yanking Out of Illegals - to better cleanse the Unified States of this terrorist scourage." The institute, otherwise known as IFFY OI, will employ a mass deportation strategy to ensure that "the hood stays clean." When questioned on the ethics of such a policy, Midway2Conquest said: "Ey? What's that?" - NotConquest4Fun stated: "It's completely ethical - from a certain point of view." - and I said: "Hey, editors, when am I getting paid?" IFFY OI's "security force," comprised mainly of foreign PMCs, has begun "the first of many" mass raids, raiding villages along the coast of Nonya (Business). The raids mainly targeted 'terrorism-prone' areas, such as banks or rich people. At a press conference announcing this, Midway2Conquest closed by stating "We Finna Light The Hood Up Bois!" He was subsequently cancelled on Twitter for cultural appropriation and misgendering of journalists. He released several apology videos, which were in fact not apologies but instead videos of himself singing in the shower while fully clothed (in a three piece suit). The song was "Practically Perfect." He kept coughing because he was swallowing water while singing.

Alan Ivanovich
